Our institution caters to the academic needs of students who largely come from rural and economically backward villages in the rural and tribal regions of Vidarbha, Maharashtra. To keep update with the competitive world, we provide our faculty and students with the best possible institutional ICT infrastructure and internet-based learning tools. Our institution has a state-of-the-art ICT infrastructure, including a high-speed internet connection, computer labs. We also have a library with a wide collection of books, journals, and e-resources (INFLIBNET).

Learning Tools: We use a variety of learning tools to provide our students with a high-quality education. These tools include: Online learning platforms such as Google Classroom, Moodle, and Zoom meeting platforms for Webinars, Video lectures, Power point and Video sharing, Online quizzes and competitions, MOOCs (Massive Open Online Courses), access to online journals and teaching materials through open text books (https://open.umn.edu/opentextbooks/subjects) and LibreText (https://libretexts.org) etc online resources. Our students are provided Computer access and e-resources at the college library and NRC facility.

We are committed to providing our students with the best possible education, regardless of their background. We believe that our ICT infrastructure and learning tools will help us achieve this goal.
